A Promise to Adam
c/o Claire Masinton

(a copy will be returned to you)

In honor of Adam, our brilliant star.

friend, brother, son, teammate

I promise:

1. Never to ride in a car without using a seatbelt.
2. Never to drive too fast, because where I'm going will be there, whether I'm 5 minutes early or fifty minutes late.
3. Never to drive after drinking, even the smallest amount, because I cannot understand how impaired I may be.
4. Never to drive after putting anything in my body that may limit my ability to think, understand and react.
5. Never to text while I drive, because the message is never more important than my life.
6. And, perhaps hardest of all, to stop my friends when they try to do any of the above. Take away their keys; call their parents; call a cab; wrestle them to the ground, if necessary. Whatever it takes.

These things I promise you, Adam. Adam Michael Spivak London.

*Finally, thinking of Adam and his great promise to the world, I pledge to do the following:
(please make a promise to improve your own life, or the lives of those around you – it may be as simple as
"be kinder to my family" or far more extensive; whatever you believe you can & should do)*
